

League of Innovators Design Team

CHERYL HARRIS

Cheryl Harris is a program associate in the education systems support program at SEDL. She works with staff to provide technical assistance to state leaders and educators through the Texas Comprehensive Center and the Southeast Comprehensive Center projects. She also works as an instructional designer for e-learning courses or modules, and consults with staff on developing and making various kinds of technology-based presentations.

